

5-Year STRATEGIC DIRECTION: ACCESS TO SERVICES

Strategic Priority:

Taking action to increase access to services and supports in the community

Background:

SCS helps individuals get services in the developmental services sector. Due to an increasing demand on services in this sector, SCS is turning to the broader community to find solutions to people's needs.

Goals:

SCS will continue to address wait times for services, and will continue to develop useful tools to connect children and adults to every services needed in the community

SCS is a non-profit, provincially funded agency that helps individuals and their families plan for and connect with community resources. In the last year, we served 3,500 adults and children with a developmental disability and children with autism spectrum disorder. Some services are provided in Ottawa and in the Eastern Region.

Our Mission

SCS helps individuals of all ages with developmental disabilities and their families, connect with community resources that meet their individual needs.

Our Vision

SCS is an innovative knowledge based organization, recognized as a leader by working in collaboration with our community to deliver high quality services to individuals with a developmental disability in our region.
