Coordination des services pour les personnes ayant une déficience intellectuelle

Board of Directors Call for Nomination

Are you passionate about the welfare of children and adults with developmental disabilities?
Is your first language French?

Service Coordination for People with Developmental Disabilities (SCS) is a non-profit provincially funded agency that helps individuals and families plan for and connect with community resources. We serve adults and children with a developmental disability and children with an Autism Spectrum Disorder. Services are provided in both official languages.

We are seeking volunteers from within the Ottawa region and from the counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, Prescott Russell and Renfrew. Ideal candidates have demonstrated experience with Board duties and governance issues and exhibit strong leadership and expertise in such areas as:

- Developmental Services;
- Community Relations;
- Finance and Accounting;
- Information Technology.

The Board is currently looking for members whose first language is French
